A title banner for each unity may be reproduced and put on a focal wall or left in the book and held up for the children to see. Each session is self-contained. The goal of each session is to be achieved by the end of the session. No activities or projects will extend from one session to another. Therefore, each succeeding session can be conducted with equal ease. Everything that is needed for conducting a session is in this spiral-bound book. You need only to provide a Bible and simple/basic supplies for the children. In each session is an activity page for younger children, called Think and Do, and an activity page for older children, call Challenge. - VHS-FM-36 The Hui 10:00
 The Hui are the largest of the Muslim minority people groups in China. They have proven to be resistant to the gospel because of strict adherence to their Islamic faith and social customs. In addition, Islam's hold on the Hui appears to be tightening because of growing contact between China and its Middle Eastern trading partners. Despite these obstacles, several Hui have become Christians and are seeking to share their new faith with others. Your prayers can encourage and empower these Hui believers and the Christians ministering with them. Pray as they faithfully work to bring the Hui, one by one to Jesus Christ.

Have you ever wanted to climb on our soapbox and just let'er rip? Oh, come on! You know there are times when everything has gotten on your last nerve and if you don't find a place to unload it all you will just scream! Well, here's an alternative. Instead of screaming, try laughing. I love to laugh! It is more fun to laugh your cares away than to scream at someone! And the best place that I have found to unload all the zany and crazy junk from my soapbox is at the feet of Jesus. Did you know He really cares about that stuff? What Father wouldn't want to hear about a child's day? From the dishwasher exploding, to your computer problems, from the silliest goof-up at church to the most painful heartache of your life – He wants to hear it all. He's a gentle listener and a loving Father. So, curl up in Abba's lap and laugh your cares away because I'm on my soapbox and I am "casting all my care on Him, because he cares for me." (1 Peter 5:7)

And what an eyeful that is!

- VHS-ST-46 Total Church Life - Exalt-Equip-Evangelize - Darrell Robinson
Leader's guide, one video, one book (foreword by Billy Graham) Total Church Life, a church growth seminar. Our world has all but forgotten what church is all about. So have many churches. The greatest need in our time is a first-century church in a twenty-first-century world. It is time that the church returned to the principles of the New Testament. Let the church be the church with a vision from God for its mission. The greatest need of our time is not economic, social, political, or ecological. The greatest need of our generation is for the church to be the church. Through the powerful spiritual and moral influence of dynamic churches, these problems would be resolved. To meet this challenge churches must Exalt the Savior, Equip the Saints, and Evangelize the Sinner. Following this pattern, churches are urged to help reach our nation for Christ by accepting responsibility for sharing the gospel within a specific geographic area so that people might respond by faith to the good news. This practical book demonstrates to church staff members and laypersons how people might be reached.

EVANGELISM

VHS-ST-27 Kingdom Principles for Church Growth by Gene Mims

Kingdom Principles for Church Growth grew out of Dr. Mims' years in the pastorate plus conversations with denominational leaders, pastors, and laypersons from across the Southern Baptist Convention. Kingdom Principles rescues us from the danger of emphasizing church growth methods and losing sight of the first principles--God's kingdom and our role in it growth. Dr. Mims states, "Before we can implement methods, we must understand the process God uses to redeem the world through the witness of the church." He says, "Methods are important, but not most important. God begins with divine process, not with methods."

VHS-ST-29 Jesus on Leadership by C. Gene Wilkes

Leadership in the kingdom of God is different from leadership in the world. Kingdom leaders are people who lead like Jesus. They are servant leaders because they follow Jesus, who "did not come to be served, but to serve" (Mark 10:45). Many churches struggle because they lack servant leaders. In too many churches today, head tables have replaced the towel and washbasin as symbols of leadership among God's people. Jesus on Leadership can lead members of the body of Christ to apply biblical principles of servant leadership to all areas of their ministries.

- VHS-ST-93 When I Get Mad, Helping Children Control Anger in a Godly Way, Rhonda Van Cleave
FUNdamentals: When I Get Mad Teaching Pack is a six or seven week program designed to help children learn to control their anger in a godly way. Few tools can be more important to children than those that help them with both their anger and the anger of those around them. Using activities, Scriptures, and video, children will explore what anger is and practice tools in controlling anger. The words and letters of STOP, A.C.T. Wisely will be used to give them easily remembered steps. This study is not intended to serve as therapy for children with deep problems or in extreme situations. Trained professionals are skilled at counseling children who deal with more than the day-to-day anger experience. However, it is the day-to-day anger experience that this study addresses. Children can benefit from some basic fundamentals in understanding, controlling, and processing their own anger. This resource is appropriate for children in grades 1-6. It can be used anytime you wish to teach this topic: Sunday night, Sunday morning, or Wednesday nights. Instructions are also included for use of this resource at retreats and in intergenerational classes. This kit contains VHS videotape, Leaders guide, and reproducible pages.

2. When a real leader speaks, people will listen. Trust is the foundation of leadership. People naturally follow leaders stronger than themselves. Leaders evaluate everything with a leadership bias.
3. Who you are is who you attract. Leaders touch a heart before they ask for a hand. A leader's potential is determined by those closest to him. Only secure leaders give power to others.
4. It takes a leader to create a leader. People buy into the leader, then the vision. Leaders find a way for the team to win. Momentum is a leader's friend.
5. Contents: Leaders understand that activity is not necessarily accomplishment. A leader must give up to go up. When to lead is as important as what to do and where to go. To add growth, lead followers--multiply, lead leaders. A leader's lasting value is measured by succession.

VHS-ST-122 Cure for the Common Life, Max Lucado

God made only one version of you. He custom designed you for a one-of-a-kind assignment. Cure for the Common Life helps you discover how your ability unveils your destiny...and how to find your uncommon call to an uncommon life. God made you unique. God never prefabs or mass-produces people. No slapdash shaping. "I make all things new," he declares (Revelation 21:5). He didn't hand you your granddad's bag or your aunt's life—he personally and deliberately packed yours. And when you live the life God gave you, you discover an uncommon joy. You can do something no one else can do in a fashion no one else can do it. Exploring and extracting your uniqueness excites you, honors God, and expands his kingdom. So, "make careful exploration of who you are and the work you have been given, and then sink yourself into that" (Galatians 6:4). Max Lucado wrote Cure for the Common Life to help you find your uniqueness. Now, in Cure for the Common Life Small Group Study, Max teams with People Management International. In this engaging and dynamic 6-week small group study, you will learn how to:

VHS-ST-129 Chase the Goose by Mark Batterson

Is your Christian experience boring? It's not supposed to be. Unfortunately, many Christ-followers have been domesticated. Like caged animals in a zoo, we mindlessly and heartless trudge through our day to day lives. No thrills. No excitement. No adventure.

But what if we could break out of the cage and reclaim a sense of spiritual adventure? The Celtic Christians seemed to capture a life like that well with their name for the Holy Spirit—An Geadh-Glas, or the Wild Goose. Bestselling author Mark Batterson argues that life in step with the Holy Spirit is a little like a Wild Goose chase—mysterious, unpredictable, and adventuresome.

This leader kit has everything you need for your group's wild Goose chase. Using the leader guide, audio segments, video, biblical articles, and music contained inside, you can help your group follow hard after the Holy Spirit and break out of the cases of their daily lives. So if you're ready, it's time to begin the wild Goose chase; God only knows where it will end.

Kit includes six-session format that allows for engaging discussion centered around practical application of the biblical text. Copy of the Chase the Goose member book. Enhanced CD with leader guide, promotional tools and e-mailable supplemental articles to help your group dig deeper into Scripture. Music centered around the study themes; Six discussion-sparking videos reinforcing key aspects of Chase the Goose. Five-part audio discussion with members of National Community Church in Washington. Unique design that intentionally cultivates connection between group members as well as individual group customization. Guide for planning a Chase the Goose retreat.

- VHS-ST-87 Believing God, Beth Moore
 Do you take God at His Word, believing what He has told us, or do you just believe in His existence and the salvation He offers? Beth came face-to-face with this question well into adulthood. At first, her response to God was, "Lord, of course I believe in you. I've believed in You all my life." Over time, the Holy Spirit led her to understand He was saying, "I didn't ask you to believe in Me. I asked you to believe Me." Based on Isaiah 43:10, Believing God: Experiencing a Fresh Explosion of Faith explores what it means to believe God. Through studying the lives of Abraham, Moses, and others from Hebrews 11 as examples of persons who believed God, Beth encourages women to deepen their own trust in god and receive a fresh word from Him. Join Beth for ten life-changing weeks and learn to believe God! Kit includes leader's guide, member book and six DVDs.

This study is a guide to authentic repentance and restoration. The leader kit contains a member book for six weeks of personal, daily assignments, a leader's guide, and two DVDs, and an optional weekend retreat to launch your study.

- VHS-ST-106 Daniel, Lives of Integrity, Words of Prophecy by Beth Moore

This 12-session study, unique from Beth's previous Bible studies, falls in two parts and can be used as one or two studies. The first portion, from Daniel chapters 1-6, deals with Daniels's life as he faced the kind of pressures and temptations Christians encounter today. Daniel models how to develop enduring integrity in an enticing world. The second portion, chapters 7-12, explores thrilling prophecies from the time of Daniel through the second coming of Christ. Kit contains six DVDs featuring twelve sessions, one member book and one leader guide.
- VHS-ST-115 Loving Well, by Beth Moore
 Loving Well Leader Kit, a unique retreat in a box, features four heart-to-heart video messages from Beth Moore. Taped at a 2005 Living Proof Live event, Beth describes different types of people—some easy to love, and some not so easy to love. These messages include insightful truths as well as humor, all designed to help women embrace the biblical mandate to love and to develop skills for loving others. These DVSD-based messages include bonus footage, featuring fun, laugh-out-loud ideas from Beth and Living Proof Live worship leader Travis Cottrell. VHS-ST-131 Beloved Disciple: The Life and Ministry of John, by Beth Moore
 Beth explores the life of the apostle John. She conveys that John had the God-given gift of seeing a larger picture and that his love relationship with Christ profoundly influenced everything he did and wrote. As the other disciples were martyred one by one, John remained to write his sublime Gospel proclaiming Jesus' identity as the eternal Word of God. In his three letters John left a legacy of divine love to ignite the passion of future believers. And while exiled on Patmos, John recorded His risen Lord's glorious revelation of victory and hope. John referred to himself as "the disciple whom Jesus love." Just as Christ took John on a lifelong journey into the depths of His love, He will do the same for you. The Bridegroom's love is un matched and inexhaustible, and He is waiting to lavish it on you, His beloved. The Leader Kit includes a Member Book, Leader Guide, Music Listening CD, and six DVDs. The Member Book includes personal interactive study five days a week plus viewer guides for the group video sessions.
